FERRY COUNTY
RESOLUTION NO. 2009-11

IN SUPPORT OF THE WASHINGTON STATE TRANSPORTARION COMMISSION RENAMING WAHSINGTON STATE ROUTE 529 AS THE YELLOW RIBBON HIGHWAY

WHEREAS, Washington State Route 529 is located within Snohomish County, running between Everett and Marysville, and is currently unnamed; and

WHEREAS, according to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, there are currently 643,000 veterans in Washington State; and

WHEREAS, American service men and women have always sacrificed extraordinarily for our nation at home and abroad; and

WHEREAS, Ferry County will always be grateful to the individuals that serve our nation and encourages supporting a wide range of veteran services; and

WHEREAS, countless Washington State men and women have served our country in the Armed Forces over the years and they and their families have sacrificed a great deal to ensure the freedoms we enjoy; and

WHEREAS, renaming a state highway in honor of our veterans is a meaningful way to show our gratitude for their selfless service and sacrifice to our country; and

WHEREAS, honoring the service and sacrifice of the brave men and women that serve in our nation's military forces is very important to Ferry County.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Ferry County Commissioners fully supports the Washington State Transportation Commission in renaming Washington State Route 529 as the Yellow Ribbon Highway.

APPROVED this 9th day of March 2009.
