

PROCLAMATION
FERRY COUNTY PRIDE MONTH
APRIL 2017

WHEREAS, Ferry County abounds in natural resources including forests, grasslands, minerals, clean water, and clean air; and

WHEREAS, Ferry County residents benefit from these natural resources for food, employment, recreation, and general quality of life; and

WHEREAS, Ferry County residents take great pride in their county and its abundant natural resources and may wish to demonstrate their pride and help to maintain these resources through personal or community activities; and

WHEREAS, the month of April sees several countywide activities planned for the participation of Ferry County residents including Educational Workshops, a Spring Conservation Fair, a Hazardous Household Waste Turn-In Day, and Roadside Cleanup Days.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Ferry County Board of Commissioners, do hereby officially proclaim April 2017 to be Ferry County Pride Month and call upon all citizens to celebrate their pride in the county and its natural resources either through individual efforts or through participation in the organized countywide programs.

Adopted this 13th day of March, 2017
