

Ferry County
Resolution No. 2013-09
In the Matter of Grazing On Publicly Held Lands

Maintaining and Expanding Grazing on Publicly Held Lands

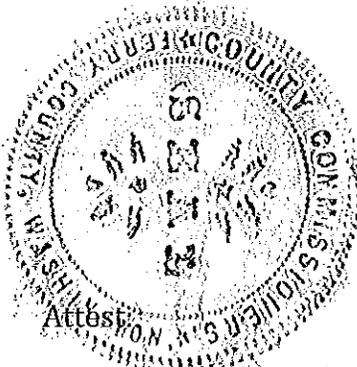

WHEREAS, the Board finds that livestock is and historically has been a vital element of Ferry County's culture and economy; and

WHEREAS, the Board finds that utilization of publicly held lands is and has historically been a vital part of livestock production.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED AND ORDERED that increased availability for grazing of livestock is in the public interest of Ferry County residents and is to be continually sought after;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that reductions in grazing on publicly held lands can only damage the culture and economy of Ferry County and must be avoided.

Approved this 11th day of February, 2013
